In the transition of last year, which will result in another crowded house.

Mr. Elbridge Nash is nicely located in his new house on Pleasant street. This is one of the finest residences in the vicinity, and its Queen Anne style introduces a new feature into our village architecture.

At the improvement unerting last Friday evening, a committee, consisting of Geo, C. Terrey and Jusiah Herd, was chosen to consult with the citizens at Lowell's corner regarding the formation of an auxiliary society at that place. With the interest in progress and enterprise that is possessed by the projde in that vicinity, there is no reason why a lively organization of this character could not be maintained. There is work enough that would demand their attention, and with all the associations in the several villages moving toward each other on the improvement line, our streets would soon compare tayorally with any of the towns in meatness and beauty.

The members of the Wednesday Night child enjoyed a very social and instructive meeting at their rooms on Wednesshay evening. The admission of baketa into the Union was the question under discussion, and was opened by E. R. Dowles, who gave a brief sketch of the manner in which other states had been admitted, and referred to the different schemes proposed for the division of Dakota. Louis A. Cook followed with a strong acray of figures and facts that were havecable to its admission, and in his remarks of twenty minutes or more showed the results of a careful investigation. The other members who took part in the discussion were Messes, lintenlies, Tack, Chawford, Paine, Richardson, Tirrell and Thomas. We have heard it suggested, and the questlon seems to be one worthy of rousideration by the citizens, whether it would not be wise and profitable to have a larger representation of joing men among the officials that conduct the town's business, and thereby marretine and enterprise in every department. We do not mean to infer but abulity and litelligence are not well represented from the present located and committees, mether have we any person in unlid who is an aspirant for place or position, but it may be that in some cases the wheels of public horsiness move too slowly, and as in other towns the citizens of Weymouth will do well to see that a sufficient amount of new blood is infused into the system from time to time to prevent loss of vigor and retention denethods that are warm out. For: hours ride from the "Hinh" nver the New York and New England Roud brings one to the capital of Connection. I have no wish to leave Boston, but if I was summurily ejected by a hard-hearted Czar, I think I rould be reasonably contented in Hartford. It is charmingly located contains many aleasant, residenttented in Hartford. It is charmingly located, contains many pheasant residences and substantial business blocks, and, among other things, is noted as being the home of Mark Twaln. The egibled dome" of Boston makes a fair show, and is in a certain sense quite a respectable infliding, even if a little untiquated, but it should not be mentioned in comparison with the elegant structure which the Connectient hegishors have for a temperary home. If you have read the article which appeared in a last Full's issue of Harper's Magazine, you have a prefly good liter of the beauties of the city. Still, everybody does not take Harper's. thirtford has gained the reputation

Almong those who have tried to accomplish this desirable result, the American Writing Machine Co. stands at the bead. They are manufacturers of the "Chilgraph?" the only double case machine which forms each character at a single stroke, and their chaim that all machines requiring additional motions are incomplete is a small one. Their machine has been brought to such a high standard of executive that persons wanting the best have only to purchase the Caligraph. log is certainty a nodel one in its way; and it is an actual fact, though a hard one to believe, that it was erected several thousand dollars within the appropriation made for the expense. The total cost was $3,342,550, and of this amount the city contributed $1,960,000, or hearly two thirds. Should the time ever come when Massachusetts decides to creek a new State House on Bencon Hill, her law cives can herm two minds from Fonnee. As the Isotronice business stands out so prominent whenever one thinks of Hartford, many persons do not realize the amount of manufacturing which is done within the city limits. There are, in fact, 124 manufacturing concerns with a reported capital of £20,405,676, tringing up the total capital in £20,405,676, tringing up the total capital invested financially and otherwise in over £180,000,000. These figures tell their away survy of the hard work otherwise in over $180,000,000. These figures tell their own story of the hard work and slow nerumalation which torough the city's linancial success. Among the varied productions may be mentioned firearms, sewing machines, withing machiner, a large amount of special machinery and patented articles, boilers and other articles. ivers can learn two points from Coaner ient-first, of a good plan for the building LAW MAKING.

Life and the insurance lave been such prominent lactors in the business file of this city for the past thresquarters of a century that Hartford and insurance are almost symmy mousterms. Hartford gamed its first substantial reputation when its companies paid dollar for dollar after the great file in New York in 1835, while the home companies in that tily were compelled to confess themselves magnitude to the task. Life insurance worked its way trem small beginnings to the present magnitude wholly by undustry and prouptness. Ayer's Sarsaparilla Is the only remedy that can be relied upon, in all cases, to eradicate the tallat of hereditary disease and the special corruptions of the blood. It is the only alterative that is sufficiently powerful to thoroughly cleanse the system of Scrothenia and Mercurial impurities and the pollution of Contagions Diaeases. It also neutralizes the poisons left by Diphtheria and Scarlei Fever, and coables rapid reciperation from the enfeeblement and debility caused by these diseases.

Myriads of Cures Achieved by AYER's Sansaranilla, ta Achieved by AVER'S SABAUMILLA, In the past forty years, are attested, and there is no blood disense, at all possible of cure, that will not yield to it. Whatever the allocates of this class, and wherever found, from the senry of the Arcile circle to the "weblesores" of South Africa, this reneally has afforded health to the sufferers by whom it was employed. Druggists everywhere can eite numerous cases, within their personal knowledge, of remarkable cures wreacht by it, where all other treatment had been may alling. People will do well to Trust Nothing Else than AVEE's SARSAPARILLA. Numerous crade mixtures are offered to the public as "blood partifers," which only allare the patient with the profense of many cleep doses, and with which it is folly to experiment while disease is stendily becoming more deep-scated and difficult of cure. Some of these mixtures do much lasting harm. Bear in mind that the only medicine that can redically purify the villated blood is on a preparation for making heas by more freely, yet F. C. He has been at work on the invention since 1873, and had the tiding patented something like a year age. The machine is encased in a wooden lox about eight inches equare and three inches deep, and, lifting the cover, the interiar is seen to hold an enameled white surface, on which are two dials, and which shows the brass keyborn in the lower left hand corner. The larger dial of the love is on the left of board in the lower left hand corner. The larger dial of the two is on the left of the machine, and is divided into 100 sections. The rim of the smaller dial is Ekcwise cut into twenty services. The first dial is called the unit pointer. That which moves about the pointer. A discovery which is expected to revaintioniza the art of glass-making is eredited Mr. Frederic Siemens. It is in effect that any desired degree of hardness, within a rather wide range, may communicated to glass, and that hy so simple a means as uniform heating followed by uniform cooling. The difficulequal rate throughout is overcome by the application of radient heat and the surtutading of the edges with a material more rapidly than that from other portions. The glass may be made much harder than the ordinary product, and three times as strong. It is suapied to many of the purposes to which iron and steel are applied, and it is not impossible that people new living may inhabit glass houses, with ne more fear of throwing stones than if the structures were of brick and mortar.

Mr. Henry Ifnrries, at the recent meeting of the Itoyal Meteorological society, read a paper in which he proved from ufficial data that the Masiln lyphuon of September 27, 1883, after crossing the Pacific, traversed America and the Allantic ocean, finally arriving in the Baltic markable tracing from day to day of a starm centre of which we have any rec ord, the distance covered by the typhooa exceeding fourteen thousand geographical miles in the space of thirty-six days. You may aid my testimony as to the merita of Piso's Cure for Consumption. I took a severe cotal last February, which settled on my luogs. They became niccoled and were so painful that I had no rest for two days and nights. I got a bottle of Piso's Cure fur tonsamption, and was relieved by the time I had taken half of it. Specifical I me I have kept Piso's Cure in the hume, and use it as a preventive, both for ling frombles and croup, for which I can recommend it as the best medicine I over used; and that is any log agreed end for I have used at least twenty others, besides about as many physicians prescriptions. Piso's Cure for Concumption has never failed to give relief to my family.

Exercine for Aged People. M. Honehsrdat, professor of hygicue at the Paris faculty of medicine, protested commend ulmost complete rest to the aged, in the following terms: "I protest against the oft repeated adage that old nge is the age of rest." This sentence has led to n very great error in hygiene. The regular general exercise of all organs f natrition and of locamation is necess ry to persons of all ages. The greatest attention on this point is all the more necessary that the tendency to rest brings If the old man does not resist, his trength will visitly and progressively liminish, and the few days he may have a live may be transformed into just so many hours. In proof that regular daily exercise is beneficial to the aged one has only to observe the results in some of the andsomest old men, who take little or no Moderate exercise, particularly walking should be the leading precept of the hygiene of the aged, without which longevity is well nigh impossible." Professor Houchardat also recommends that old people should maintain their intellectual faculties, or otherwise they will get into a state of incurable terpor. This best necomplished by having soma steady intellectual pairsuit, and by taking un netive interest in the events and progress of the day. In our boyhood we reenBer a very old man, who told us he kept in as perfect health as an old man can be by chopping wood for an hour or two every day. This he regarded as suffleient exercise for him. man we know finds his health greatly benefited by sawing wood with the ordinary lack saw .- Herabl of Health.

AMONG THE PERSIANS. An Afternoon's Walk in the

Chief City. Our Late Minister Describes Some of the Sights of Teheran.

S. G. W. Benjamin iste United States minister to Persia, describing an aftermon in Teheran, says, in Harper's: It Is the hour of peace; a rusy light beties the honse-tops, but the stately avenues jending north and south are in shadow. and cooled by the water thrown by the sakkahs. The tender evening light also rests on the snowy crests of the vast ridge of the Shim Iram, w Light of Persia, which sears to a height of 13,000 fee across the northern side of the plain, but nine miles away. The evening glow, hefore it fades into twillight, lingers last on the snowy cone of Demayend, 21,000 feet high, ever present in every view, like the presiding genius that protects the capital of Persia. With slow and dignified steps the Persian gentlemen stroll through these inviting avenues, engaged in genial converse Their long robes their massive beards their lofty caps or voluminous turbans along, undisturbed by the numerous horses or carriages, or the hideously unkempt and filthy dervishes who claim alms of ecount of their sanctified rags. At this hour the tea-houses are in full blast. The reader may be surprised to lenro that the national beverage of Pershe rally suppose that a country so non Araby the Itlest and the aromatic grove of Mocha would, like the Turks, prefer coffee. Of course n great deal of coffee prepared in the Turkish way, is consumed by the Persians, but the fact re mains that they are essentially a teadrinking race, drinking it in vast quantities, flavored with lemon or lime, and sweetened almost to a syrup. The liabit is probably the result of the commercial intercourse which at an early period existed between Persia and China, une which, as is now well known, gave ar immulse to the arts of Persin, of which evidences appear at various stages of her houses take the place of the coffee-houses of Constantingde. One meets them a every turn, of every rank, but all alike resorts for rest, leisure, and entertalnment. There one may see public dancers, who by law are now invoriably men, although times and exhibit in the harens. The male dancers are brought up to this yoen tion from boylood, and invariably wear long hair in initation of women, and shave their faces smooth What interests an intelligent Europea more at these tea-houses than the dionee are the recitations from the poets. The entire cantos from the great epic of Ferdoorse, rejeated with land, sonorous modulation, heard sometimes at quite a distance at the more inspiring passages, and listened to with eat ly in the payement. But one of the most common spectacles of Teheran in the late thist is I regard a frost proof lower animal, so also do I respect the frost proof crowd is a match of trained wrestlers.

The find rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughs frequently developing the gravest maindies of the Broat and Imags, is a consideration which should impel every problem person to keep at land, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYERS CHERRY PETTHIAL.

Nothing else gives such imageliate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. F. Swieder, of the Maine Medical School, Brimwick, Me., says:—
"Medical schene has produced no other anodyne expectorant so good as AYER's CHERRY PETTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the threat and lange."

The same official is expressed by the

Cherry Pectoral

The Law of Larceny, In the law of larceny there has been dents and the escape of backy thickes, says the London Telegroph. A plain man would think that "taking and carrying away" are words easily interpreted; lank what is "taking and carrying away?" The cases decided are various. For instance, goods are tied to a string one enof which was fastened to the bottom of a counter. A man having taken and carried them as far as the string permitted, it was decided that he had not "taken and carried away" the goods. Anothe one end of a wagon to the other, and lt was found that he had "taken and carried away" the goals. A thief, also, who and dropped it in her hair, was found guilty of "technically taking and carrying away." There are other carlosities of the law as to thlags which cannot be stolen. Thus, it is not larceny to take earth to make an embankment, nor to take water unless it be stored in pipes. Then, it would be breeny to steal a wild animal kent for food or profit. but not if it were kept for enriosity or amusement, as in a private menageric. It has been, when tame and salable, cannot be subjects of lurceny. Mr. Justice Stephen, In

They spoke vehemently in their native language, and Sigel listened with a face whose gravity was occasionally twitched a little at the corners of his mouth by internal laughter. Then all three talked at once, and it was clean that the General was opposing the violent arguments of his visitors. At length they retired, still talking, and evidently unconvinced,

"What was the errand of my friends, o you suppose?" said Sigel; "they wanted government pensions. Hear-lug that I had been made a pension agent they came, as compatriots, to see met about it. BILIOUSNESS. Bilious symptoms invariably arise from indigestion, such as furred tongue, vomiting of bile, giddiness, sick headache, irregular bowels. The liver secretes the bile and acts like a filter or sleve, to cleanse impurities of the blood. By irregularity in its action of the secretary in the second of the blood. larity in its action or suspen-sions of its functions, the bile Is liable to overflow into the blood, causing jaundice, sallow complexion, yeilow eyes, bli-ious diarrhoa, a languid, weary feeling and many other distressing symptoms. Billous-ness may be properly termed an allection of the liver, and can be thoroughly cured by the grand regulator of the liver and billary organs, BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS, It acts upon the stomach, bowels and liver, making healthy bile and pure blood, and opens the cuiverts and sluiceways for the outlet of disease. the same direction only more thoroughly, to the future.

Attention is called to the teport of the library committee, to which was committed a more complete and thorough arrangement of that branch of the society's work. Much progress has been made and there is good promise of much offer in time to come. The effort made chiraly the past season to sear reflex of the Weymouth Gazette from its beginning, as will be seen from that report, is meeling with grantfying success. The number of volumes, amplieds, papers, and cabinet articles presented has been grantfying affixing in to so large as in some of the previously starts.

The treasurer's report will show, that, although the receipts have not been large, the expenses have been kept within them, and there remains a balance in his hands in havor of the society. In the early part of the year, the "Sketch of Weymouth," published by the town, under the assignes of this society, made its appearance; and has been received with much favor by the lovers of instoncal hierature in various parts of the country, lor, while time, is to show the people what has been done for by this society in this direction; to lay be, then the results, in part, of live years of work, also that any errors may be directed and cored. Besides this, it is hoped that the success shown any stimulate a renewed activity in the cliffor more lates in the same connection; for, ie much has been done, very much more remains et done before the work is compreted, the secretary would therefore recommend that same general plan as that of the past year be suited draing the coming year. Operations were begun by slnking a sbalt about 190 feet deep npon land of Mujor. Amos Stetson in East Braintree ou the north side of the river near where the present Union Engine House studies, No coal was alscovered. Another shaft was sunk upon the had of flev Jonas Perkins in East Braintree, on the south side of the river in a well then alsont 8 or 10 feet deep. The shaft was sunk to the depth of 114 feet below the bottom of the well. Some pieces of coal were here found. It was currently reported that some one had dropped pieces of coal luto the well previous to the Union of the Mesovery. The enterprise was soon along been exhausted.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it cradicates from the astern Heresittsty Scrotlin, and the kindred poisons of contagions diseases and interview. At the same time it enriches and vibrilizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejovenating the entire system. This great Regenerative Medicine

Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsapacilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingtia, the foldides of Potassiam and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and schefflienly compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla as an Absolute Cure

The Weekly Caymenta Bill.

In the Legislative debute on the bill to enforce weekly payments for labor,

For all allsenses caused by the vitlation of the blood. It is concentrated to the high-est practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are chalmed, and do therefore the cheapest, as well as the best blood purifying medi-cine, in the world. Value of Lightning-Conductors.

Il is inid down as a perfectly seitled fact that a well-made lightning conductor, properly placed and kept in an efficient state can never, under any circumstances, fail in its action. Unloubtedly it has happened that buildings which conductors were attached harr a many lattacker been struck by light which conductors were attached have a many lastances been struck by lighting, and even damaged; but it is maintained that these cases, so far from elling against the truth that good-lighting conductors are lafallible, only prove a serve that they are so. A close inventigation of all known instances animinally protected against lightning, shows most ouclusively that the canductors were ither imperfect in some particular or sild not lead properly lats moist considerable that is, the proper kind of central connection. There is no ase on record in which a really well-nade lightning-conductor, properly nade lightning conductor, properly placed and with its terminal in "good arth," did not do its duty; and without logmath 1 on the subject, it may be said that such a conductor could no more fail to give prefection than nn efficient rainupe can fan to carry the water from a coof. Although the electric force is either a "current" nor a "finid" often sit is so described, the analogy here eiven of the rain-pipe and the conductor a nevertheless sound. And the reason selear enough. The water in running lown a hollow tune, obeya simply the iwa of gravity; the law is not less immutable which governs the movement of he electric force.
